Concierge Cruises is an amazing travel agency! I was nervous about traveling on my first cruise. I didn't know what to expect or where I was going to be traveling. The owner, Georgene, spoke with me for over an hour! She described in great detail the different ports I would be visiting and what to see while I was there. She then proceeded to tell me all about the Royal Caribbean ship that I would be sailing on. The entertainment, the food, the service and the style. I was blown away by how knowledgeable she was! I am no longer nervous and can not wait to travel in December. She even said she would take care of all my paperwork for me. Truly first class service. I will definitely be booking with Concierge Cruises from now on! Thanks Georgene!
